Renee Thurber announces that her pointer, Ana, finished her championship on July 3 at the Summerfest shows. Ch Cottonwood Oreille Anacapa JH, as she is now known, was finished by Junior Handler Taylor Lohstroh. Congratulations to Ana and Renee!

Karla Spitzer reports that a puppy that she bred, Harpo's Certain Charm d'Jacquet UD, out of CH Jacquet's Bravo of Goldfield and Karla's late Jacquet's Heliocentric CDX (aka Helio), recently finished her UD in just 5 shows—the last 3 in a row—a pretty good record for a boxer, Karla notes! She is co-owned by Karla and Mary Nee and lives in Illinois. Good show!

Flo sends these brags about her Danny: "So far, he's got three 4-pt. Majors from Ventura. This past weekend I showed him at South Bay on Sat. & Sun. Notice I said 'I', not the handler. He got 1 point on Sat. and won Best of Winners again. On Sun., 'I' showed him again and we got Best of Winners again and this time, 2 points. So adding all this up, he became a CHAMPION today!!! It was very exciting to put the last few points on him. He is entered at Santa Barbara for a few backup points. In his show career, he finished in 5 shows — all BEST OF WINNERS!!!!"

DOGS LIVE HERE

If you don't want to be greeted with paws and swinging tails, don't come inside—because DOGS live here.

If you don't like the feel of a cold nose or a wet tongue, don't come inside—because DOGS live here.

If you don't want to step over many scattered toys, don't come inside—because DOGS live here.

If you think that a home ought to smell like perfume, don't come inside—because DOGS live here.

But if you don't mind all this, you will instantly be loved when you do come inside—because DOGS live here.
