Happy Valentine's Day from Scarlett

She's here and anxious to meet You!

Elisa Hirsch introduces her three month old field lab, born Nov. 18, 2004, weighing about 13½ pounds. She gives the most delicious puppy kisses, has a silky soft puppy belly and loves to play. She will be registered as "Gone with the Wind" and her call name is Scarlett.
"Frankly, Scarlett, we all give a damn!"
(That's a quote from Laurie Burnam)

Carole Raschella writes: "Despite the horrendous rain, cold and wind, the Palm Springs shows still managed to draw a huge entry for the very first AKC titled Rally Obedience Trials. OK, technically the east coast had them first, starting right after midnight on January 1st, but this was our debut, and Liam is proud to announce that he not only won his Rally Novice title, but is the first Irish Setter on the west coast to do so. I did point out to him that two other Irish Setters qualified, and had my armband number not been a mere 19 out of 126...minor point, he huffed. He says he's proud to be an RN and hopes some day to be a doctor".

From Louise Brady: Torque (Star Synchronous Rotation) and I went to our first Hunt Test on Saturday Jan 29th, hosted by the Pointer Club of Southern California. We earned the first leg toward our Junior Hunter title! Also, we went Best of Winners at Ventura County Dog Fanciers show on Jan 23rd for 1 pt, and Best of Winners again at Orange Empire Dog Club on Jan 30th for another 2 pts. He is now up to 9 pts (both majors), all before turning 8mos old. He has only been to 5 shows, and was Best of Winners at 4 of them, going Reserve to his litter brother at the 5th show. I'm pretty proud of the little guy!
